Called to Be a Spiritual Leader

Do elders see their job primarily as balancing the budget or approving the use of the fellowship hall? Or, do elders see their job as one of asking the people of their congregations where they have seen God in their lives in the last week or asking what support a person needs from their church community? The former is serving on a board, the later is being a spiritual leader. Part of your Unified Mission Giving to the Presbytery of East Iowa will be used to sponsor the following 4 elder training workshops:

- March 7 in Cedar Rapids at First Presbyterian Church
- March 14 in Mt. Pleasant at First Presbyterian Church
- March 21 in Iowa City at First Presbyterian Church
- March 28 at Bettendorf Presbyterian Church

The Book of Order states, "It is the duty of elders, individually and jointly, to strengthen and nurture the faith and life of the congregation committed to their charge." (G-6.0303) These elder training workshops are intended to challenge elders to think about the "call" of God on their lives and to encourage them to consider themselves as spiritual leaders in their faith communities. For more information on the Elder Training Workshops, go to our website at www.peia.org and click "Events" on the right-hand menu.
