

Junior High Late and Unacceptable Assignment Policy

To encourage learning beyond the classroom, to review basic and important skills, to supplement the curriculum, and to emphasize the need for the school and the home to work together to educate the child, Junior High students are assigned homework.

There are times when assignments are turned in late or in an unacceptable way. A late assignment, an incomplete assignment, or an assignment that is done unacceptably will be recorded over a nine-week period.

Students will receive a “late” for a homework consequence. “Strikes” are used for behavioral consequences.

A combination of all classes will be used in tallying late, incomplete, or unacceptable assignments.

Warning/1st Offense: The student will stay in during intramurals, even if the assignment is completed by intramural time.

2nd Offense: The student will stay in during intramurals, even if the assignment is completed by intramural time. The student’s homeroom teacher will call the parents to set up an action plan.

3rd Offense: The student will stay in during intramurals, even if the assignment is completed by intramural time. The student’s homeroom teacher will call the parents to set up an action plan. The student is required to come to school at 7:15 AM the morning after the 3rd offense is received to work on late assignments. If the student already has late assignments finished, they are still required to serve time in the morning.

Every Offense After the 3rd Offense: The student will stay in during intramurals, even if the assignment is completed by intramural time. The student’s homeroom teacher will call the parents to set up an action plan. The student is required to come to school at 7:15 AM the morning after the 3rd offense is received to work on late assignments. If the student already has late assignments finished, they are still required to serve time in the morning.

Students will start “fresh” each nine-week period.